BLESSINGS FROM PRISON

May, 2021: Vol. 39, No. 5

A PRISON MINISTRY WITHIN THE PRISON

“I am proud to say Jesus is my everything, my all; He is my entire life. I am totally surrendered as I live and breathe every Word of God. I consider myself to be a very devout Biblical Christian. I have a great testimony and I do share my faith boldly. I have a great amount of Biblical knowledge and that is why I enjoy your studies. I learn from them and have kept certain ones for further study. I have a small library of personal books; I call them my tools.

“God has given me a teaching ministry and one of my gifts is encouraging and helping guys overcome drug addiction, as God has delivered me from Satan’s evil grip of drug addiction. I wanted to write, thanking you for your care and concern. I want all you have to offer. May God continue to bless you in all you do.” Roger

A LETTER AND A CERTIFICATE OF ACHIEVEMENT

“Now I have truly completed the Emmaus courses! These studies and the interactive responses over the years have aided me and kept me going. I share with anyone who will listen to me. I am a small part of the inside prison ministry called Discovery. As well, I have a seven-man group on the pod. Our Lord and Savior has placed purpose and meaning in my life and I strive to be a good servant and disciple. I wish to express my thanks to all of you.” Richard

GROWN EXPONENTIALLY

“I want to thank you for sending the Bible studies to me and all the other inmates. During the time I have studied, my knowledge of the Word and my relationship with my Father has grown exponentially!” Brian

Thank you!

I WANT ALL MY FAMILY TO BE STUDYING THESE COURSES

“Brothers, I am so grateful for the studies you’ve sent me. They have been a great blessing to me. I’m thankful to God for giving me the opportunity to be part of His people. It is difficult being a prisoner. But God in His love has brought me to prison to show Himself in my life. Here the Lord is showing me why I was created. For this I give thanks to God for the prison and its employees. When I get out from here, it will be to share this salvation with others and tell them that in God there is no condemnation.”
Miguel (in Spanish)

OUR MISSION:

To introduce Jesus Christ to each incarcerated person in TX, LA, MS, and NM through a curriculum of English and Spanish Bible correspondence courses that are free, postpaid, and volunteer counseled.

MY GOD WILL NEVER LEAVE ME

“I should be going home next month. I’ve been gone since Nov, 2016. I’ve lost everything except my mother. I met God in 2018 in the hole. He’s always been there. He knows even my past thoughts and remembers all my feelings. He is all knowing. He helped me to understand His love for me, and now, I have begun to love Him back. I know I am going to heaven when that day comes and I’ll see Him. I look forward to that, my Hope, my All.

“When I get released, I won’t have anything, but I know my God will never leave me or forsake me. I’ll have to start at the bottom, but He’ll be with me. So, my life is in His hands. He knows my heart towards Him. I know I will be okay.” Daniel

MY FATHER WAS A JAIL MINISTER

“My father was a jail minister. His favorite story that he would always tell was the prodigal son. It’s so ironic that now I’m at the same jail where he preached. I was just like the thief: so close, yet so far away.

“I am now like the lost sheep that has been found. Exactly like the prodigal son, but wish I’d have come home sooner. I thank the Lord for this ministry. The stories are super helpful and helped me get a different point of view. I look forward to the next study!” Isai
