BLESSINGS FROM PRISON

July 2022: Vol. 40, No. 7

BEHIND THE WALLS

“I’m writing to receive your prison Bible study and prayer. Been really experiencing hardships and I would like to know more about Christ. I am saved and I’ve accepted Christ as my personal Lord and Savior. I believe that I’m now living in my last days. If you could please help me, it’ll be greatly appreciated. Again, I’m not exactly sure as to how much longer I have to live here on earth, but for the duration of the time remaining, I’d like to get to know Christ in a more intimate and personal way. Could you please send your Bible study and mention me in prayer.” Jarret

“I would love to study more about my God and better my life by letting him in my heart. I’m in a very rough time in my life and need God more than ever right now. I feel this is a good way to find myself by finding my God and to live my life by faith, not by sight. I’ve never been much of a good person, but I believe my God has led me to this exam to help me. If anyone can help me to understand, it’s your test to guide my life on a better path and to find how to live my life by God. I’m not much of a writer, but I know God will help me just as he has helped others. Please help me find my God.”

Joey

“My father was leader of the cartel Mexican Mafia, executed on death row, August 28, 1998. I am incarcerated and just read your book, Men Who Met the Master. I was wondering if you could help me with commissary, correspondence, pray for me, and pray for my family. I was born dead in McAllen – a miracle baby. I’m incarcerated falsely; my mother dropped charges. Please help me.” Genaro

“I would like to thank you for serving the Lord and helping others. May the glory be given to our God and may the light continue to shine through so that others may wonder just what it is. Don’t stop serving and I will continue to work on my prayer skills! I would like to pray for you:

“Heavenly Father, I thank you for this wonderful ministry that you have allowed me to come in contact with and to study. Father, I ask that you continue to guide them on the path that brings glory to you; keep them safe and protected in this crazy temporary place we live in. We know that this is only a test/temporary assignment until we come home and spend eternity with you! Father, if anyone needs healing and it’s your will, may it be done. I also pray for the Spirit that lives inside of us all to help us live righteously and help us to make choices and decisions to honor you! Thank you for this time. Forgive us our sins, Father God. In your Son’s holy and precious name. Amen.” Robert

OUR MISSION

To introduce Jesus Christ to each incarcerated person in TX, LA, MS, and NM through a curriculum of English and Spanish Bible correspondence courses that are free, postpaid, and volunteer counseled.

“I’ve been a Louisiana student of your Bible study for a couple of years now. In my three years, I’ve been in seven different facilities and sadly, four did not allow Bible studies or books to come in. Before I got here, the last time I saw a church service was in February of 2020. This unit has a chaplain but not a church building yet. We use the auxiliary kitchen for now.

“All together I have done around sixteen different Bible studies. The best one for learning is yours by far. Not only do I want Write-Way to be the main Bible study passed out here, I would love to see inmates earning good-time-credit for passing each study. Either way, the chaplain is on board for this also. I’m hoping you all could contact him and help guide him through what needs to be done to make this possible and to help our inmates grow in Christ. I had given the chaplain my finished Ephesians Bible study and showed him how you keep up with my studies and GPA [transcript]. He was very impressed with it! Praying you will call him and make this dream a possibility for us here.” John

“I enjoy learning and growing in the knowledge of God’s truth through your ministry for us behind bars. Since surrendering my whole life to God Almighty through Jesus Christ and being baptized in the Holy Spirit, I’ve never before experienced a more meaningful life than I am experiencing today. I could go on and on about God’s goodness in my life. Thank you for believing in me and for not giving up on me, having been so long in coming back since I backslid. I no longer listen, nor do I believe the lies of the devil, and I now know the voice of God as I never have before. I have learned to allow God to fight my battles and walk victorious in Christ Jesus as Lord of my life and allow the Holy Spirit to guide and direct my steps. Please see to it that I receive my Bible courses. God speaks to me through your courses and I’m in awe to be given the privilege to see and understand God’s Word in all its truth.” Santos

“We were on quarantine here and several of my studies were lost in the transition. Please be so kind as to resend it. Thank you so much. I enjoy your courses greatly and they have taught me so much and given me a great foundation in Christ. Your courses have helped to prepare me for seminary school which I started last year. All you do is so greatly appreciated.” Tressie

“I’m writing to you, family and friends, to say, Thank you, and, God bless you, to each and every one of you for your support, time, and prayers. I’m sure you all do much more than I know, not only to help me, but plenty of others as well. God is good, and I’m happy and most of all blessed to have family and friends like you! I hope to one day soon to be able to come to your church to meet each of you to say, Thank you, personally and fellowship as one big family. Please pray for me that God will bless me with wisdom, knowledge, understanding, a family of my own with the right companion that’s a God-fearing woman, my business to grow and prosper in my fashion designs for men and women’s clothing, and that I find a good support person/sponsor/mentor, as well as a church home. I really and truly appreciate your time, effort, and all that you all do.” Narada

“Just to let you know how God has been moving; I have been ministering to other inmates and also have been on the prison church staff, even ministering to men in lockdown. I am also rededicating my life to Jesus.” Dannie

“These courses always lift my spirit and help restore my Christian mind and lead me to live away from sin and to continue in love and grace and peace. Pray for my release and for my children to grow close to God, finding and knowing Him.” Jenevi
