BLESSINGS FROM PRISON

November 2022: Vol. 40 No. 11

Celebrating 40 years of God's Faithfulness in Prison Ministry

"Our chaplain at this institution has been zero help. Apparently, he's limited to what he can help with, which is perfectly fine, as the Lord will provide. We have no institution-run church services, so I started one for the inmates outside. We found a Jewish inmate who provided grape juice and crackers for us to have communion. It was beautiful. For many men, it was their first time. So far, 33 men have accepted Christ as their Savior. Praise God!

"I've tried my best to not pile anything else onto my wife, as she is still in shock about my arrest and sentence, and struggling. The entire household has turned to Jesus, though, and I couldn't be more proud of them. I patiently await God's miracle to restore my home and to lead them by example. Any day now He will get me home!" Nicholas

"This course came at exactly the right time [Men Who Met the King]. I felt I was being wrongfully persecuted, with no Bible, single cell lockdown, and I've been doubting my faith. Thank God for His perfect timing. I am feeling like it has been a difficult test that has removed more doors. Thank God for you and your obedience to His calling! Renewed hope. I was cleared for reintegration into population and completed this course in the same day. May I never again doubt God's ability or reasoning.

I recently lost my mom in this life. Please pray for the peace of all who loved her and that God is merciful with my path in life. I've been feeling like the chief of sinners." Bryan

OUR MISSION

To introduce Jesus Christ to each incarcerated person in TX, LA, MS, and NM through a curriculum of English and Spanish Bible correspondence courses that are free, postpaid, and volunteer counseled.

"I completed the Emmaus courses in 2020 and have learned so much through these years. These courses helped me to find my calling in ministry. Thank you for the excellent material contained in and based on the Bible, which is the standard of all truth. I am writing to request a copy of my transcript; my desire is to earn a degree. I am excited to begin my goal to serve others more effectively down the road. I turned 65 this year and am going all out to grasp and learn more about Jesus our Savior." Mark

"God bless all you saints at Write-Way. I surely enjoy our time with the Lord with these lessons. I will be catching the chain bus very soon [transferring from county to state prison]. I look forward to a fresh start wherever the Lord wants me. Until then, I love you guys. I sure have learned a lot and been comforted through our time together. I pray wholeheartedly that your ministry receives in abundance all things needed for the furtherance of joy and peace and possibilities to share the gospel in and through Jesus Christ to all people." Michael

"I feel greatly blessed and grateful to have known my mentor, and every mentor, for all the people involved in this ministry – the spiritual body of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Thank you for all your love and discipleship for all us inmates. You are always in my prayers."

Gustavo

"I extend all my love and peace to you all, which flows freely through the grace of our Lord Jesus. I am so grateful for your fellowship and guidance in these dark times of my life. I am content in mind and spirit for once! I am in need of nothing. My Father in heaven provides all sustenance and provision for me. For man cannot live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

"I've been watching this show called Chosen. The actor playing Jesus has such a warmth and genuineness to him. It shows our Lord in a different light. I always wondered – sure, Jesus is God, but Jesus was also man. And he had personality traits. We know he had emotions, but this show broke down a barrier for me. We have a God who wants us to bring all our problems to him, for his yoke is light. We have a Lord who wants to welcome us back home. When we fall and stumble, he's there to catch us before we fall too far. He's a Lord who wants to lift us up to higher places. What's not to love about Jesus?" Gerald

"On 11 May 22, halfway through seminary as a Muslim, I cried out and proclaimed my belief in our Lord Jesus Christ and renounced Islam. I had been Muslim 17 years." Rick

"I feel greatly blessed and grateful to have known my mentor, and every mentor, for all the people involved in this ministry – the spiritual body of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Thank you for all your love and discipleship for all us inmates. You are always in my prayers." Gustavo

"I've done two other studies from Write-Way, but there's something about the Source of Life [Gospel of John] Bible study that has so clearly touched on exactly where I am in my quest for knowledge. He uses everything for His glory. I am thanking Him so much for your Bible study." Kevin

"I have been teaching during my stay here. But all the students I had have gone home. I helped them write different churches where they lived. They have written me already, letting me know they are in church and doing good. I feel blessed by God to have taught these young men. I just hope they grow in the Lord as I have done all these years of study through Write-Way. The one thing I am going to miss is teaching, but I'm hoping I can help more guys in here. So maybe God will send more guys to me in time. Please send me more studies." Jackie

I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify Him with thanksgiving.
